

We currently accept donation requests from the public for community-based events. Applications must be submitted one month prior to the event. We are happy to provide gift cards (up to a $50 value) or a gift basket (up to a $50 value) for events that align with our ends policy. The ends policy states "Friendly City Food Co-op exists so that the Shenandoah Valley has: a vibrant local economy, fair and friendly relationships, healthy, informed consumers and producers; and a healthy environment."
